ROGER WILLIAMS RALLY.

The Women's Baptist Missionary Union will hold their first quarterly meeting Friday, March 1, at the Second Baptist Church, corner Ninth avenue and Stevens street, Rev. G. B. Taylor, pastor. A special Educational Rally has been planned on this occasion for the rebuilding of Roger Williams University. We are calling on every loyal Baptist woman and friend to help us. We want $100.00; we can have it. We are told to attempt great things for God and expect great things from Him. We are asking each Missionary Society to give $10.00, and each church where there is no society, $10.00, because they haven't a society. Third Avenue Baptist Church Missionary Society will lead off in this, who will follow? "But whoso hath this world's goods and seeth his brother have need and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" (1 Jno. 3:17.) The following program will be rendered:

A DELECTABLE MASK PARTY.

A very enjoyable mask party was given at the residence of Prof. W. S. Thompson, 1305 Demonbreun street, Monday evening. The costumes showed a deal of originality as to conception and execution, the best of them by far being that of Mr. Nathan Wallace, who appeared as Shylock. Mr. Wallace's hump and limp were so well assumed that his identity almost defied detection of the ladies. Misses Willie Page and Jennie Childress, as Mary Jane and Samantha Ann, two maiden ladies of questionable age, though their hair showed considerable of the white, were probably the best. Though in fact the make of all the ladies was excellent. Eugene Page as Mrs. Belfry and Frank Hawkins as Mrs. Shoeless, attracted a deal of attention.

Though the majority of those present thought the best make up were as described above, several were of the opinion that the honors should have gone to Miss Grace Lucile Price, who appeared as a baby. Her make up was simply superb in the estimation of some.
Light refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Price, Mrs. Turner Page, Misses Grace Lucile Price, John D. Thompson, Esther Pinkard, Ethel Jordan, Anna Tate, Emma Owens, Georgia Watkins, Lula Polk, Laura Polk Smith, Willie Page, Jennie Childress, Alberta Davis, Messrs. Wm. Tate, W. S. Thompson, Eugene Page, Robert Polk, J. O. Battle, Fred Trapp, John H. Kelly, Jr., Haven Moores, Oscar Wilson, Nathan Wallace, A. C. McKissack, H. A. Longley, J. J. McKeever, Wm. Boger, W. B. Davis, George O. Boyd, Jr., George Haden.

REBECCA COURT OF CALANTHE.

Last Friday night the most stupid person could not have helped being awe-struck at the stream of humanity that poured continually in the front door of the Odd Fellows Hall on Fourth avenue, North. Gay young couples attired in their evening costumes poured in from every part of the city and just enough of the parents and friends of more mature age were present to insure good manners. But the young people conducted themselves very nicely during the entire evening. Not a single cross word was uttered; instead every one exhibited a spirit of friendliness. True some were very young and most too young to be out so late at night, but the little urchins joined in the exercises with great spirit.

At about half-past ten Mr. Dock Liner, the popular professor of dancing, came in and amid cheers took charge of the couples and from time on everything was conducted orderly. Prof. Liner is very popular with the young folks, and takes special pride in instructing them in the art of dancing. Mrs. Adella Mills, the superior officer, was kept busy every minute of her time serving the hundreds of partakers of the good things she had prepared for the occasion. When the ladies arrived to begin preparations to spread their tables they found the hall dark and cold, and had it not been for the open door policy of the Globe they would have been compelled to stand out in a dark, cold hall for over an hour. Finally some one was found who had the key and to the surprise of every one the hall had not even been cleaned up. Chairs were all over the floor and a Christmas cedar tree was standing on one end of the stage. The ladies were very much put out at such treatment. Whereas the hall should have been cleaned up before six o'clock, but instead it was between eight and nine o'clock before the keeper could be found. After the hall was opened it developed that there was no light on the steps, and it was after ten o'clock before this embarrassment was overcome.

On the whole the entertainment was a success and Rebecca Court can well feel that they have done themselves and their society much good.

SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

The rally held on the 11th inst. by the M. E. Congregation was a decided success. Mrs. James Randolph won in the prize contest.

Mrs. Josie Estell has been indisposed since her return from Orme, where she closed a very successful term of four months public school.

Miss Orlena Smith, who has been attending school at Knoxville, has come home to be with her mother, who is in bad health at present.

Mrs. A. Shelton was sick last week. The two masterly sermons preached by Presiding Elder Carter of the A. M. E. Church were a treat to all who heard him.

Mrs. J. M. Hawkins is confined to her room with the grippe.

The Henry Byrom Literary Society meets every Tuesday night at the A. M. E. Zion Church.

The "Baby Show" given by the Ancient Daughters of Africa recently at the K. of P. hall was largely attended. The two prizes were a "go cart" and a baby dining chair. These were won by voting. The winners were respectively the little ones of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cooley.

The pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church fills the pulpit promptly every second Sunday.

Mr. A. B. Bryant subscribes to the Globe this week.

The Valentine entertainment given Thursday night of last week by the Juveniles of the K. of P. Lodge, was a very interesting affair.

Rev. Mr. Shelton preached two splendid sermons here last Sunday.

Rev. Wm. Simmons, pastor of the Baptist Church, realized a handsome sum of money in their rally last Sunday.

Mr. Lewis Corrington has returned to Chattanooga after spending a few days with his family here.

Mrs. Walter Gaines suffers with neuralgia.

Rev. W. C. Adams, of Hot Springs, Ark., is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Mary Miller left Monday of this week for McMinnville, Nashville and other points in the interest of the Calanthe Court.

Rev. B. J. Jones, P. E. of A. M. E. Zion Church, will hold his second quarterly meeting for this conference year next Sunday.

The entertainment held at the Odd Fellows Hall last Saturday night by the A. M. E. congregation was well patronized by the public generally. The most interesting feature was a "spell down" by a class of some twenty or thirty persons. The ladies who stood the longest were Mrs. Josie Estell and Mrs. Minnie Martin. Mrs. Estell's side won the prize.

THE GLOBE IN SYRACUSE, NEW YORK.

It is almost remarkable how a copy of the Nashville Globe will spring up in all parts of the United States. Regardless of whether on the exchange list or not, some lover of a good journal will pick up a copy of the Globe and will find an opportunity in some way to make it known. One of the newest surprises was a letter sent to Dr. R. H. Boyd, president of the One-Cent Savings Bank from Syracuse, New York. This letter was written by one Mr. C. A. Dickson, who is stockholder in the One Cent Savings Bank. A part of the letter reads as follows: "To-day I accidentally saw a copy of The Globe of Friday, January 11, and was surprised, also pleased to see these headlines, 'Approaching the three-mile post. Annual meeting of the One Cent Savings Bank will be held January 14th.' The letter goes on to state some facts that were read in this article and shows that the write up of the One Cent Savings Bank was read throughout the entire United States. He goes on further and says, 'On reading your article I saw these words, 'The third annual report when issued will show remarkable progress in financial circles. It has been learned that strenuous efforts will be put forth to dispose of all the unsold shares. It is predicted that at the meeting next week a more startling dividend will be declared. Stock will be sold and a general revival of interest will be attempted.' This gentleman, who is a stockholder in this bank, gleaned more information from one copy of the Nashville Globe than he could have possibly received from a dozen letters from friends. In order to prove his appreciation for the high manner in which the Globe is conducted, he sent in a year's subscription to the president of the One Cent Savings Bank and asked that it be turned over to The Globe.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Will Young delightfully entertained a limited number of friends on Wednesday evening, February 20, at her residence on Eighth avenue, North. Music and "pit" were the evening's chief diversions. Mr. Joe Porter presided at the piano, and the merry party enjoyed some very rare selections from Mr. E. C. McNairy, the noted bass soloist. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Eason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorne Mr. and Mrs. Will Young and Messrs. Joe Porter and E. C. McNairy.

"THE HUMAN BROTHERHOOD."

The Founding of a Bureau for the Purpose of Moulding Sentiment Favorable to the Colored People.

For quite a number of years a propaganda against the colored people of the United States has been carried on by persons hostile to their aspirations for full citizenship rights. They reasoned quite well that laws favorable to the cause of the colored people would never be enforced if the nation could be taught to hate the race. "The Human Brotherhood" is a bureau established in Philadelphia for the purpose of passing around among persons whose good will for the race is desired such literature as will mould sentiment in its favor.

The forces arrayed against the race seeking to blacken its name are powerful and aggressive. Strenuous work is therefore necessary to effectively offset them.

The aim of The Human Brotherhood is to organize groups in every community, equip them with the literature most helpful and have them disseminate the same.

Persons friendly to the cause of the colored people have provided and will continue to provide funds for the operation of the Bureau.

No fee whatever is attached to connection with the movement and all in sympathy with its purposes are desired as co-workers.

The Bureau is under the supervision of Rev. Sutton E. Griggs, A. M., B. D., the author who for years has called the race to activity in the matter of rebutting the slanders directed against it.

The Bureau invites correspondence. Literature fully explaining its workings furnished free upon application. Address communications to:

THE HUMAN BROTHERHOOD, 116 N. 12th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
